WARSHIPS AND MARINES WAITING FURTHER WORD FROM NICARAGUA

Reports of the Imprisonment of the American Vice Consul at Managua Are Not Given Credence—Important Message Expected

Washington, Nov. 27.—If secret orders have been issued to the army transports Logan, Crook and Buford at San Francisco as has been reported, to prepare for immediate departure for Nicaragua the action was taken without the knowledge or authority of the secretary of war. Such was the statement made at the war department today.

Other officials of the department deny that they contemplate any other movement for the transports than the trip to the Orient in connection with the annual transfer of troops to and from the Philippines. The navy is waiting on the state department. That accounts for the indecision over the day of sailing of the Pacific from Philadelphia with the 400 marines for the isthmus of Panama and possibly for service in Nicaragua.

The Albany and Yorktown are still held in Magdalena Bay, awaiting developments in Central America. The Tennessee, Maryland and Des Moines are in the vicinity of Port Limon, Costa Rica, just waiting. So is the Vicksburg at Corinto, Nicaragua.

As long as there is a possibility of marines being needed in Nicaragua, the Pacific will remain at League navy yard. For the reason the Pacific may not sail until after December 3, the original date set for her departure for Panama, with marines for duty there.

The navy department has adopted this course so as to be able to send 800 marines or more to Nicaragua from the United States proper, in event they are needed in Nicaragua. The battalion of marines to be sent to Panama numbers about 400.

The arrival today or tomorrow of the Missouri at Hampton Roads from New York will be watched closely because of the rumor that she is to be sent to Central America. Intention of sending her on such a cruise is denied at the navy department, however.

There is reason to believe that the state department at last has received a communication from Mr. Caldera, American vice consul at Managua, but the contents of his message so far have been kept a secret and, if the department has received anything from Nicaragua recently of an important character, it is likewise being withheld.

The report that the United States is in communication with President Diaz of Mexico with reference to some joint action in the Nicaraguan situation, is also without foundation. The report, however, there is reason to believe that telegrams relating to Nicaragua are passing between the two countries.

It was stated at the department that it was extremely unlikely that any official announcement of importance concerning Nicaragua would be made earlier than Sunday night or Monday morning. This is assumed to indicate that matters of consequence are under consideration which may be expected to culminate about that time.

CHICAGO IS A BAD TOWN

Where Reubens Are Fleeced by "Runners" for Clothing Stores.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—It was decided yesterday by the council license committee that "all runners" for clothing stores, pawnshops, etc., must pay a license fee of $300 a year. Incidentally it was charged during the deliberations of the committee that about half of the so-called "runners" are confidence men.

Alderman Dunn said that some of the big mercantile houses in the city received numerous complaints from country customers, who were fleeced while in Chicago.

"They introduce themselves to these country customers as members of the big firms," said Alderman Bowler, "and draw them into their stores with the assurance that it is a branch of the big one and sell them $5 overcoats for $50 and things of that kind. Only the other day one of these 'runners' met a fellow from the country in front of the city hall. The countryman was looking at the pigeons. The confidence man told him that he couldn't look at the pigeons in Chicago, as it was against the law, and displaying a star, placed the fellow under arrest."

"Up the street a little way they met a confederate whom the confidence man hailed as 'Judge.' The judge asked the countryman why he was looking at the pigeons and the victim replied, 'Why, I was counting them.' 'That's against the law,' answered the judge. 'How many did you count?'"

"Twenty-one," answered the farmer.

"The fine is $5 apiece for counting pigeons here," commented the judge and the victim handed over $105."

Story Discredited.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Reports which have come from Nicaragua by way of New Orleans, that Henry Caldera, vice consul of the United States at Managua, the capital of Nicaragua, has been imprisoned or suffered violence at the hands of President Zelaya, are given no credence here.

The state department, which is in close touch with the situation through the commander of the United States gunboat Vicksburg, at Corinto, who would, within twenty-four hours after such news reaching him, have been on the scene of action, has had no report of the imprisonment of the vice consul.

Senor Salvador Castillo, representative of Estrada of the provisional government, discredits the report.

ROAD TO EDEN NOW IN AN IMPASSABLE CONDITION

Eden, Utah, Nov. 27, 1909. Editor Standard.—The people of the valley celebrated Thanksgiving Day by feasting and merrymaking and incidentally discussing the injustice done them by the present road commissioner in destroying the road. (Poor as it was) leading from Eden to the Ogden Canyon road, a mess. This is the time of the year when the farmers are compelled to market hay, grain, and other products, and fill their coal and flour bins, and procure necessary supplies for winter.

From the Ogden Valley Creamery, leading north the road has been made impassable by scraping from 3 to 6 feet of sticky clay on to the road bed.

Any child over ten years of age in this valley would have known better than to have ordered such a mess. To see empty buggies and wagons to which are attached from one to four horses, "stuck" in the bottomless mire, to hear double trees, single trees, irons and harness cracking and breaking, to hear the compliments paid to the "wise ones" who engineered the work, would make an ordinary roadmaster sit up and take notice, but for nearly a month the good people have had to tolerate this condition and the end is not yet.

Vehicles and horses have been delayed and damaged on the road, known as the Eden big hill, until the patience of the people is exhausted. A portion of the poll tax paid, if properly applied, would have put the road in first class shape, and would have saved time and money, horses and men, and a deal of profanity.

We earnestly hope that one or more of the Honorable Commissioners will take a drive over the road (7) and order such work done at once as will save us from this inexcusable, unjustifiable and dangerous condition.

NEGRO'S BOLD ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY

CROWD FOLLOWS THE THUG AND MAKES A CAPTURE.

Stranger Steps Off a Train and Gets the Surprise of His Life Near Depot.

While on his way to Hot Springs, Arkansas, William M. French, today, had occasion to stop off in Ogden a short time for train connections. To his surprise, he found a crowd of men waiting for him. He was surrounded by a mob of men, who were armed with clubs and stones. He was taken to a saloon to get refreshments.

Mr. French entered a place where there were a number of people, among them a negro. He called for a drink and in paying for it, exhibited a wallet of money which he replaced in his inside pocket of his overcoat. No sooner had Mr. French placed his money in his pocket than the negro rushed up to him and, thrusting his hand into the pocket, grabbed the wallet and, before Mr. French realized what had happened, the negro darted through the back door.

Men in the saloon noticed what had been done and all started after the fleeing negro. They caught him just outside the back door of the place, but not until the fellow had thrown away the wallet of money. A hurried search for the money was begun and soon it was found by a rock. A dozen or more hands were placed on the fellow and he was firmly held until Detective Pender arrived. The

TRIPLE MURDER AND ASSAULT NEAR A LITTLE TOWN IN EASTERN KANSAS

Frontenac, Kas., Nov. 27.—A lonely road a mile north of here was the scene of a triple murder and an assault on a woman some time last night. The dead are Mr. and Mrs. William Bork, Germans of Frontenac, and their son, 2 1/2 years of age. The attack on Mrs. Bork is the supposed motive of the crime. Mr. Bork presumably was killed while trying to defend his wife.

The child probably was slain because the murderer wished to silence him or feared he had been recognized by the little one.

Mr. and Mrs. Bork and their child were last seen alive late last night when they started to drive to Frontenac from the home of Mrs. Bork's mother, at a point two miles in the country. This morning the Borks' horse and buggy were found standing in the roadway at a deserted spot.

In the bottom of the buggy was discovered the body of the child, with a bullet wound in its head.

Hastily pursuing their investigation, the searchers came across the body of Bork lying in the middle of the road some distance away. Bork had been shot once in the head and twice in the body. A trail through the dust plainly led the searchers to a cornfield a hundred feet away where they found the body of the woman. An assault had been committed upon her and she had been shot through the heart.

Mrs. Bork had fought hard. Along the trail the corded weeds were found both the slippers she had worn, ribbons from her hair and her cloak. There had been a desperate struggle in the cornfield.

It is supposed that Bork was the first to be killed. The indications were that he had been shot as he sat in the buggy and that he fell from his seat to the road. Two bullets evidently were fired into his body after he fell. Another bullet then ended the life of the child.

Coroner Dudley, Sheriff Morris and County Attorney Woodson hurried here from Pittsburg. The bodies were brought into town and an inquest held this afternoon.

Bloodhounds were sent for and will be used in an effort to trace the slayer. He left no clue.

INJURED BY A BABOON

Trainer of the Animals Fought Until He Fell Exhausted.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 27.—Struggling for his life with an infuriated baboon, Fred Wilson of Brazil, Ind., a trainer employed by an animal show, fought desperately for half an hour yesterday with Kokomo, a pink-tailed baboon that attacked him in the cage.

The savage, similar to a monkey, up Wilson's throat, but so long as the trainer could keep on his feet he had the better of the fight. At length he fell, exhausted from loss of blood and strain, and the animal gnawed his legs in a frightful manner. A score of monkeys in the cage kept up a shrill screaming during the progress of the fight and this attracted the attention of other employees, who rescued Wilson. Wilson is in a serious condition.
